Christianity is an Abrahamic monotheistic religion based on the life and teaching of Jesus of Nazareth. Its adherents, known as Christians, believe that Jesus is the Christ, whose coming as the Messiah was prophesied in the Hebrew Bible, called the Old Testament in Christianity, and chronicled in the New Testament. It is the world's largest religion, with about 2.4 billion followers as of 2020.

The Gospel of Mark, like the other Gospels, is about the work of Jesus. His work was to teach, to heal, to perform signs of God's power, and most of all to die and be raised to life for the benefit of humanity. Christ's work is absolutely unique. Yet it is also a seamless part of the work of all God's people, which is to cooperate with God in restoring the world to the way God intended it ...

Salt was accepted and collected as taxes by the Romans from the people of the Land. One of the main sources of salt for Palestinians, of course, was the Dead or Salt Sea. So oppressive were these taxes that the people adulterated the salt sand or other earthy material (the salt to begin with was not our nice pure table salt). The government purified the salt by spreading it in ...
