Devil in a Blue Dress isn't a standard detective tale given a coat of black paint. Neither is it anything like the old blaxploitation subgenre, in which the main joke in every scene is to underscore an infantile kind of Black Power, 'puttin' whitey in his place.' If anything Easy Rawlins is a more cautious character than in Mosley's books. Denzel Washington has Easy tread lightly ...

The Shin Megami Tensei Alice shares many physical similarities with the Disney Alice, such as the blue dress and the blonde hair. Due to the overwhelming support of both theories, it is easy to assume both are valid and that she is a hybrid of both figures. That both are valid seems to be the case though, since the Strange Journey compendium hints at both. Her signature move "Die For Me ...
